

BRING YOUR STUDENTS TO A
CITADEL THEATRE
STUDENT MATINEE!

2022-23 STUDENT MATINEE INFORMATION PACKAGE

The Citadel Theatre is proud to share our productions and our passion for theatre with school audiences from Edmonton and the surrounding communities. We offer special matinee performances for school groups for many of the productions in our season, and consider these to be an essential part of our programming. We believe that all individuals should have the opportunity to experience, appreciate, and participate in live theatre. Sharing live theatre with new audiences, be they youths or adults, requires education and cooperation as it is a communal and participatory art form. The Citadel Theatre works to ensure that all patrons have a positive experience when visiting the theatre.

For school matinees, we rely heavily on the support of participating schools and teachers to ensure that students come to the theatre prepared to enjoy the production and be good audience members. The following information is provided to help you plan for your school's visit to the Citadel Theatre.

Please be aware that the age recommendations provided are subjective. We will do our best to provide age recommendations and any applicable warnings in advance; however, things are subject to change at the Director's discretion during the rehearsal process.

Some productions in the Citadel's 2022-23 Season may have limited or no school matinees at this time. If schools express enough interest, additional matinee performances may be added to the schedule. Alternatively, group tickets to an evening performance can also be arranged. Please read through this information in detail, and do not hesitate to contact the Education and Group Sales Administrator if you have any questions regarding a production or the booking process.

BOOKING PROCEDURES

- A completed booking form (which can be done by either filling out the last three pages of this document, OR by filling out the online Student Matinee Booking Form) must be received before an order will be processed. Tickets will not be reserved or put on hold without a completed booking form.
- Orders will be processed in the order we receive a completed form.
- Orders are not confirmed until an invoice has been sent.
- A non-refundable 20% deposit is required to secure your order. If a deposit has not been received within 2 weeks, your order may be cancelled and the tickets released for sale.
- If paying the full balance at the time of your order, please note that any adjustments or cancellations may still be subject to the non-refundable 20% deposit.
- Final payment is due by your performance date. If a balance is still owing 30 days after the date of your performance, a 5% late fee will be charged per month a balance is overdue.
- If a performance is sold out, we will contact you to see if we can find an alternate date or add you to a wait list. We will follow up with you if there are cancellations/tickets released, or if we have enough interest from schools to open an additional school matinee performance.
- If you are interested in a production that does not yet have a scheduled school matinee, we will add you to a wait list for that production. If we have enough interest for that particular show we will schedule a school matinee, and our Education and Group Sales Administrator, Josephine Hendrick, will reach out to you with concrete booking information. If you would like to add your school group to a wait list, please email jhendrick@citadeltheatre.com and provide your school's name, your contact email, and a rough estimate of how many students you would like to bring.
- Orders for workshops will be handled by Luc Tellier, Director of Education and Outreach.

CHANGES AND CANCELLATIONS

- All requests for changes must be submitted in writing to the Education and Group Sales Administrator at jhendrick@citadeltheatre.com for review.
- Adjustments should be within 15% of the original booking. If reducing your numbers by more than 15% of the original booking, the cancelled tickets are still subject to the non-refundable 20% deposit.
- The deadline to confirm your numbers will be on the Monday three weeks prior to your performance. After the confirmation deadline, there are no refunds. Please note: sometimes bookings are made on a very short timeline depending on how early a matinee is scheduled, and how soon you contact us to book. In that case your deadlines for the deposit, for confirming your numbers, and for the final payment will be specified by the Education and Group Sales Administrator when they contact you. Please adhere to these set deadlines.
- Refunds will not be provided for students who are a "no show" and do not attend the performance.
- Cancellations cannot be made within two weeks of the performance. An exception may be made if you have another school group that will be purchasing your cancelled tickets. If your school is cancelling because of extenuating circumstances (such as closures due to COVID-19, etc...) please contact the Education and Group Sales Administrator to discuss your options.

- Cancelled orders are still subject to the non-refundable 20% deposit.

TICKETING AND SEATING

- To keep costs low for school matinee performances, physical tickets will not be printed. Our Front of House ushers will have a guest list with the names of all schools attending, and the total number of tickets booked. Supervisors must check in with the ushers when lining up at the theatre doors. At this time, please provide the ushers with accurate numbers in case of an emergency.
- There are no reserved seats for each school (with the exception of reserved seating for accessibility). Seating will be based on a first-come basis. Our ushers will seat everyone as they enter the theatre, starting from the front of the theatre to the back. In the Maclab Theatre, ushers will seat everyone in the middle section first, and then alternate between the left and right sections.
- Everyone will be seated as they enter the theatre, filling every single seat in a row. Groups arriving in more than one vehicle should wait until everyone has arrived before lining up to enter the theatre if they wish to be seated together. There is a small chance that groups may be split up once a row or section ends.
- Supervisors should be spread out among the students. It can be difficult for ushers to address students in the middle of a row, so please have supervisors seated among your students.
- Please do not seat yourselves. This can cause congestion and confusion in the aisles while schools are being seated and delay the start time of the performance. It is also unfair to schools that have arrived early to line up for seats closer to the stage. Any schools found seating themselves will be removed from the theatre and seated at the back after all other schools have been seated. If students/supervisors need to rearrange themselves within your allotted seats, please wait until after your entire group has been seated.

LATECOMERS AND RE-ADMITTANCE

- Latecomers and re-admittance into the theatre after the performance has started cannot be guaranteed.
- Patrons will be allowed into the theatre at an appropriate time at the ushers' discretion. In some cases, Stage Management may request that no late/re-admittance be allowed.
- Once admitted, patrons will be seated at the back of the theatre and will only be able to return to their original seat at intermission.
- Because patrons may be left waiting in the lobby or seated alone at the back of the theatre, young children must be accompanied by a supervisor if leaving the theatre during a performance.

AGE POLICY AND CONTENT

- No children under the age of 5 will be admitted into the theatre. If a young child under the age of 5 is turned away at the theatre doors, no refunds will be provided.
- Age recommendations are subjective and are not strict restrictions; however, please be aware that some productions may contain mature language and/or subject matter.
- The Education and Group Sales Administrator will try to provide any applicable warnings in advance, but they are subject to change at the Director's discretion during the rehearsal process. Please feel free to inquire further about the content of the show you are attending with your students.

COVID-19 SAFETY PROCEDURES

At this time, masks are not mandatory for guests, but are strongly recommended. The Citadel will continue to evaluate their safety procedures, and will update their website and the public if they make any changes.

For more information please see our COVID FAQs page on our website, which we will continue to update.

THEATRE ETIQUETTE

Please review this section with all supervisors and students attending the performance. We ask that supervisors spread themselves out and seat themselves among their students. It can be difficult/disruptive for our ushers to go through the seats if there is a disturbance in the middle of a row. The Citadel relies on the assistance of the schools' supervisors to supervise their students during performances.

- Please be respectful of the venue. This includes all lobby décor and furniture. If eating your lunch or snacks in the lobby, please deposit all garbage into the provided bins.
- Photography, video, and audio recordings of performances are not allowed and are strictly prohibited.
- Turn off and put away all electronics such as cell phones, iPods, video game systems, etc. Other sound or light-emitting items should not be used (e.g. laser pointers).
- The actors on stage can see and hear the audience during the performance - it is important for audience members not to talk, move around, or fidget during the performance, as it can be distracting to the actors as well as fellow audience members.
- Please keep bags under your seat and do not leave them in the aisles in front of your feet, or on the sides. It may impair the ability of persons to exit the row in an emergency. Some productions may also have actors walking through the aisles during a performance.
- Do not put your feet on or climb onto the theatre seats or hand railings.
- Do not interfere with the actors or the performance (e.g. tripping, throwing items on or near the stage, etc.)
- There is no dress code at the Citadel, but we respectfully request that patrons refrain from wearing hats in the theatre.
- No outside food or drinks allowed. Only drinks in Citadel sippy cups or other bottled beverages sold at the Citadel bar or Ghostlight Coffee House will be admitted.

- Students are allowed to eat their lunch or snacks in the lobby. Other food items are not permitted in the theatre, students may be asked to throw away or leave their drinks/food outside in the lobby.
- Any individuals behaving in a disruptive manner may be removed from the theatre. No refunds will be provided. Please note that the Citadel recognizes that all individuals should have the opportunity to experience art and culture. We will do what we can to ensure special needs patrons are able to attend Citadel productions and some exceptions may be made.

ALLERGY ALERT: The Citadel Theatre is a scent-free building. For the safety of those with allergies, please refrain from wearing perfume or other scented products.
