

MEDIA RELEASE

A Comedy of Mistaken Identities: The Importance of Being Earnest Begins This September

August 23, 2023

Edmonton, Alberta – Rehearsals begin this week for the fun, quick-witted, farce set to play on the Maclab stage next month.

In this classic comedy by Oscar Wilde, two society bachelors, Jack and Algernon, both secretly pretend to be a man called Ernest. After meeting two women who know them only as their alter egos, a weekend in the country sparks mayhem and hilarity in this farce about mistaken identities as they attempt to conceal the truth and keep up the charade.

Award-winning Director, Jackie Maxwell, leads this production, wanting to stay true to Wilde's original writing, character and essence of the play but give it a slight refresh by bringing the time period from Edwardian, design and dress, to the early 1950s. She is working closely with Set and Costume Designer, Michael Gianfrancesco to bring that idea to life. Maxwell explains that "There is still enough social structure in this era in England to support the world of this play...we can get the attention to, and love of, high end fashion that this class had in both time periods."

The Importance of Being Earnest plays in the Maclab Theatre from September 23 – October 15, 2023. Tickets are on sale at citadeltheatre.com or by calling the Box Office at 780.425.1820.

The Pay What You Choose in-person lineup takes place on Sunday, September 24, 2023 beginning at 5:00pm for the 7:30pm performance. More information can be found on our website.
