Alberta Culture Days at The Citadel Theatre: A weekend of free family-friendly arts & culture events

September 22, 2025

Edmonton, Alberta - The Citadel Theatre invites the public to join us for Alberta Culture Days from Friday, September 26 to Sunday, September 28, 2025 - a full weekend of free arts, performance, learning, discovery, and fun for all ages.

This celebration opens the doors to creativity, exploration, and community connection with events happening throughout our building. Whether you're a curious kid, an art lover, or just looking for something special to do with family and friends, there's something here for you.

"Celebrating Culture Days in the heart of the Arts District is our way of saying that the arts belong to everyone," said Jessie van Rijn, Executive Director. "As we launch our 60th Anniversary Season, we invite the community to the Citadel and look forward to welcoming families, neighbours and friends to create, learn and celebrate the arts."

The Arts District will be alive with activity throughout the weekend, with our neighbours at the Art Gallery of Alberta, the Winspear Centre, the Stanley A. Milner Library, and the Royal Alberta Museum also offering special programming. Alberta Culture Days at the Citadel Theatre is generously supported by The City of Edmonton's Downtown Vibrancy Fund.
